Dear Speakers and Participants,

Re: The Squamish Business and Trades Show 2015

"Squamishtrades.com", with the help of our partners and supporters, are planning an event in Squamish, BC.
We are currently finalizing the production details.

Event: The Squamish Business and Trades Show 2015
Location: Brennan Park Recreation Center
Ice Arena Dry Slab and Foyer
Date: May 15, 2015 8am-1am (set up and presentation TBD)
May 16, 2015 8am-6pm (Trades Show) 7:30pm-1am (presentation)

Our organization's mission is to rekindle a Squamish tradition – "business collaboration".

The event will provide space for a table or booth(s) to businesses, individuals and associations . We plan to include games, inspirational speakers, raffles, food, and much more!

Our event is an effort to promote business and trades in the community by enabling the public to meet the players!
We anticipate over 2,000 people attending this year's event!

In addition to this being an opportunity for you to provide awareness and information to the residents of Squamish about your business you will also be giving back to the community.

Event Schedule is in the works..

Kids entertainment, sports presentations, guest speakers, fashion show, all the people and motivation to participate in the things that make your community that much better.. Oh, and all those big trucks your kids want to drive! Expect the pro's to want to show their stuff.. is there even room for all our toys?
